Supervisors on the move

Push port, planning

The board of supervisors Monday took positive steps toward comprehensive planning for the county and by a more circuitous route moved toward establishment of the Hancock County Ports and Harbors Commission.

Action came in the two fields after Marion Kent, deputy assistant for the administrator for NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center, appeared to outline some of the ways by which the county might best prepare for the population explosion anticipated from the Mississippi Test Operation.

A request that the county fathers proceed with the port and harbor commission provided by a local and private bill at the last session of the state legislature was presented by J. Norton Haas, Jr., in behalf of the Bay St. Louis Jaycees.

Supervisor H. G. Dean of Beat 1 moved that the supervisors appoint the commission at once. While the board chairman, R. G. Hubbard, Jr., of Beat 5, urged that selection be deferred a week for consideration and that capable men be named rather than those politically expeditious, Dean insisted they should go to work at once, particularly since the Army Corps of Engineers is getting ready to let a contract for dredging the East Pearl River to the test site. As a particular benefit to Hancock County, this commission should see that spoils from the dredging are dumped in assigned places on the Mississippi side of the river, he urged.

Dean proposed Arliss Strain from Beat 1; Supervisor I. M. Peterson named Claude R. Greham from Beat 2; Supervisor James Neacise nominated Vernon Haas from Beat 4, and Hubbard suggested Dr. A. K. Marshall from Beat 5.

Supervisor Charles Levinghouse of Beat 3 asked that his appointee be deferred until next Monday but moved approval of others nominated. This carried unanimously.

Some technicalities toward creation of the commission developed however when the board's attorney, Lucien M. Cox, and Mayor John A. Scaffidz of Bay St. Louis arrived at the meeting within minutes of each other.

Scaffidz promptly inquired what discussion had ensued about financing such a commission and was told by Dean that the local and private bill, introduced by Rep. Clarence M. Lodner, provided a two-mill refund on the state levy paid by the county.

And Cox counseled that the best approach for the board at this time was to record in the minutes that the Jaycees request was taken under advisement. He added that the board was certainly adequate to face the task at hand (talking with the Engineers).

Cox finally secured a copy of the legislation to peruse and advised that the two municipalities in Hancock County made no appointments, rather each recommended an appointment to the commission. Terms of the commission expired at that same time as those of the board of supervisors, a phrase Hubbard said he thought was "too tied to politics."

Nevertheless, Cox said he

Senator John C. Stennis yesterday wired the Echo that NASA is allocating $25 million for immediate construction use at the missile test site in Hancock County.

These funds have been chifted from other "less urgent projects" "because of the dire need to have the Mississippi facilities ready by February 1965", the target date for testing the Saturn 5-2 rocket here, reported the Senator, who as a member of the Senate space committee played a major role in locating the big missile development in Mississippi.

A part of these funds had been earmarked last year by Congress for the Hancock County project, but the majority of $17,328,000, according to Stennis, has been reprogrammed from other less urgent projects. Of the 25 million about $7,720,000 will go for equipment, instrumentation, support systems and propellant transportation system.

Meanwhile, announcement is made that two more contracts have been awarded this week for design of facilities at what has been re-designated by NASA as the Mississippi Test Operation (formerly Mississippi Test Facility). Both went to Walde-mare S. Nelson and Co., Inc., of New Orleans. One is for dock and dock roads amounting to $19,950 and the other for a mass-scale bridge for $69,950.

Five others were announced last week. They are maintenance and warehouse, J. L. Turner and Associates of Jackson; emergency and automotive buildings, Mulvaney Corp. of Jackson; laboratories and engineering buildings, cafeteria and reception building and guard houses, Overstreet, Wier, Wier and Lewis of Jackson; design of local Corps of Engineers office at Savannah, Ga.

W. E. Winterstein has been assigned as administrative assistant to Capt. William C. Fortune at MTO and Mach Herring is due to arrive shortly from Marshall Space Flight Center to take up his duties as public information officer here.

Large same site for Courthouse

A call to preserve the Hancock County Courthouse before it became at least as old as that to preserve New Orleans' famous Carnegie Hall after the Bay St. Louis Jaycees sponsored a fairly well attended public meeting Monday on the future of the county's seat.

Giving impetus to the session, led on by last month's grand report calling for new facilities in light of population growth, overcrowded "inadequate" court quarters, was the Jaycees community development committee.

The community development committee developed the fact that the information gathered to date, the opinion sampling, meeting and would stand up before the phone and be counted when the present 55-odd old structure.

The proposal, first advanced by Peebles, retired lawyer, an auxiliary office building erected "across the street" recently drew the most support and was seconded by most subsequent speakers.

Norton Haas, Jr., moderated the session which heard opening remarks on space needs from Sheriff Gerald V. Price and Tax Assessor George Heitzmann.

About the only support for a new building they got was from Fred Wagner, architect retained by the board of supervisors in last year's renovation attempt. Michael D. Haas, local attorney and Jaycee who volunteered his views at the end of the session, reminded that "there is a real need in the Courthouse...let's do something about it." He pointed to intense congestion in the chancery clerk's office vault, sheriff's office and fire danger to valuable papers recorded there.

J. C. Koenig, Jaycee president, assured the audience that the information gathered would be turned over to the proper authorities in the hope it would be of some help. He noted that the Jaycees are not advocating moving the Courthouse or tearing it down.

Wagner reported that Frank-linton, La., spent $400,000 on its new Courthouse which did not include a jail and figured what the grand jury wants here would run around $500,000.

"We certainly need a sewerage system first," declared Mrs. H. Ogden, Bay-Waveland Garden Club president.

"Half the people in this county are indigent and pay no taxes," complained Mrs. Jeannette Corn-michael, local real estate agent. She observed Buckingham Palace has been renovated and still serves its purpose.

Richard Burge pointed to insurance saving with a fireproof building but urged it be retained on the present site with additional parking area.

School board holds HNC bids for study

Five bids for construction of the proposed addition to Hancock North Central School, running considerably in excess of what it was hoped six classrooms would be built for, were opened Monday by the county board of education and taken under advisement pending a special meeting this afternoon.

Motion to table for study and consideration of alternatives was made by Beat 2 Trustee Lamar Lee on the advice of the architect, Dalton B. Sturges of Mississippi City.

Apparent low bidder was Band Construction Co., of Piquette, which offered $54,500 on Bid A (four classrooms and accessories), $27,600 on Bid B (two classrooms and accessories) and Bid C (six rooms) $74,495.

Low bidder on B was L. A.

Basterling, Inc., of Gulfport at $23,800. However, his price on A was $56,406 and $79,433 on C, the complete job.

Others bidding and their prices in order of bid item were J. O. Collins of Biloxi, $55,574, $24,710 and $78,784; C. C. McDonald, Jr., Inc., of Bay St. Louis, the only county firm to offer, $55,744; $30,900 and $78,870; and (Cont. on Page 7.)

Pink ladies open drive for members

Hancock General Hospital auxiliary launched a concentrated drive for new members during February, designated as membership month, at its meeting Monday at the hospital.

Chairmen for the drive are Mesdames Gordon Gleim, Albert Kuehn and C. B. Penrose and information may be secured from any one of them. Dues are $2 per year.

Mrs. Frank Embrey, publicity chairman, noted that since the work of the Pink Ladies is vital to the hospital and community, newcomers to the area are particularly urged to join along with others interested in this volunteer work.

The new members will be welcomed at a tea March 6 at the home of Mrs. James A. Evans, North Beach Blvd.

Mrs. Ben Hille, president, conducted the business session when Mrs. Winfield Partridge was elected corresponding secretary for the year, Mrs. Elizabeth Wakes, chairman of the Mississippi chapter, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Jackson, spoke on home care of such patients, outlining the various new treatments.

Mrs. Moran has 78th birthday

Mrs. Louise Moran of Catapoula celebrated her 78th birthday at her daughter's home.

Four of Mrs. Moran's brothers and sisters attended: Mrs. Amelia Necaise and Mrs. Brozen Bohinger, both of Kiln, Mrs. Sedonia Lee of New Orleans, and her brother, Tip Necaise of Kiln. Her son and daughters present were Mrs. Luvia Moran, Mrs. Oswald Moran and Eugene Moran, all of Kiln, and Mrs.

Marriage Licenses

Applications of local interest for marriage licenses issued during the last two weeks by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis were as follows:

Rosamond Bartler Shaw, Jr., and Esther Krohn, both of Perkinston, Rt. 2, Johnny Lee Ferrell, Rt. 1, Pass Christian, and Brenda Catel Shaw, Rt. 2, Perkinston; Howard Chandler Franks, Jr., New Orleans, and Ann Proctor, Clermont Harbor.

Pollypeers

Groundhog Day greetings! As we always begin the column Saturday, and this Saturday just happens to be Feb. 2, we put in several moments of scientific research to give you a truly accurate forecast on the doings of the animal said to be an authority on the weather. We are more than happy to report that the little fellow did not see his shadow—the day dawned bright and balmy with brilliant sunshine which obligingly disappeared behind scattered clouds just as noon approached. No sun, no shadow, . . . no six more weeks of cold weather—WE HOPE!

We must add that our nature informant, Brewster Mollere, slightly dampened our enthusiasm for the research pointing out the fact that we have no groundhogs in this part of the country. . . in fact the old hill boy added that groundhogs are sometimes called woodchucks or marmosets. . . but we still don't have any. . . nevertheless we'll just believe exactly what we want to believe and optimistically state—winter has returned north. . . at least for today!

A gala announcement

We sort of hate to pass on the following tidbit in the belief that a certain bachelor about town is apt to shed a tear or two—but it's news and tell all we must—that flying doll, Robin Gross, is about to take the fatal step. . . Robin, former Echo reporter, more recently employed on a Toledo newspaper, and Charles Andrew McAlister are to be wed at St. Mary's Church in Monroe, Mich., April 27.

A very happy birthday wish goes to Hardin, now known to intimates as "wing boy" Shatuck, (see Echo, Jan. 24) who celebrated Friday, Feb. 1.

Cleve Edwards blew in from Grand Pass Saturday—he had intentions of attending the Fireman's ball, but was met by his stepson, not Mrs. Edwards. . . so returned to his Louisiana home instead.

Marie Trelles returned home from Florida more impressed with that state's beautiful weather during his stay last week than the fact he really "brought home the bacon" poodle show wise. He won best puppy in show in Tampa in addition to a number of second, third and fourth place awards.

Congratulations Bill Pitcairn—Bill won the bowling ball in the very "pro" 600 league.

John Auderer, son-in-law Tommy Kidd and Sterling Balasid have returned from Chicago where they attended, naturally, a dental convention. Margie Auderer remained at home to supervise remodeling on their home.

Kate and Roy Saun drove into the Crescent City Saturday and joined Jane and Wayne (just love that rhyme) Mack for a night on the town.

Granddaughter makes good

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Humphreys, who spent the weekend at their Cedar Point home, are bursting with pride—their granddaughter, Pamela Ann Humphreys, a senior at the Academy of the Holy Angels, won the Wendy Burke Literary Society award in competition with high school seniors from 13 states at Tulane University last week. Pam, who is most interested in the theater, gave a dramatic interpretation in her winning effort.

Must comment on the fact that old buddy and frequent visitor to the Coast Mel Parnell was elected to Louisiana's Sports Hall of Fame last week. Mel is Shirley Hawkins' first cousin.

Get well wishes

Get well wishes to two Ramsey employees—Miss Edwina Obourne is somewhat better, but still weak from an attack of acute bronchial pneumonia and co-worker, Miss Lucille St. Amant is also under the weather. Louise Markey is on the mend having been released from Hancock General last week. Jack Toomey is a patient in Veterans in Biloxi.

Haven't had an opportunity to ask Frank Trepand how things are in Miami. . . but do know he has returned from that famous resort—Ralph Dupes' latest bout was of course, the reason for his trip. Jo Jo, the Clown, is spending the off season here awaiting the beginning of the Shrine Circus circuit.

Marletta Schwartz may be added to the list of new car owners—Marie Butterworth not only has a brand new automobile, she's also moved into her recently purchased Nicholson Ave. home.

Grace and Sam Bortages observed their 13th wedding anniversary Jan. 29. Elaine Davis and Ray Bortages helped them celebrate with dinner at Haverly's. Grace is still in shock—Sam surprised her with a lovely gold wristwatch and a pin and earring set. Hazel and Frank Chase of New Orleans and Clermont Harbor (they formerly owned a summer home on Terrace in Waveland) will be grandparents for the seventh (unless we've forgotten a child or so) time next month. Daughter Peggy and husband Reggie Reggie are hoping that their first daughter will arrive early in March. . . they have two sons to date.

Al Landry is busily undoing freeze damage beautifying his yard. . . he potently planted rows of gladioli bulbs Thursday and had to repent the task Friday as a dog obviously was of the opinion he had buried bones.

Dr. Hava speaker for BWGC meeting

Camellias in the Garden will be the subject of Dr. Walter Hava's talk when Bay-Waveland Garden Club meets at 8 p.m. next Thursday, at the Garden Center.

Mrs. Dan Russell will give a flower arrangement demonstration and Mrs. Herbert Finlay is to talk on horticulture. Mrs. Ray Gordon will be hostess.

Gone with the wind

Despite the fact that a roaring nor'easter accompanied by torrents of rain fouled up my "groundhog playhouse", but good, it didn't effect in the least (anyway not much) revelry at Saturday night's Fireman's Ball. One casualty of winds clocked at 75 mph was Lloyd Garcia's "deputy dawg" stetson which disappeared never to be seen again as he made a dash for the comparative safety of the yacht club. A few of the many braving the elements to dance 'til the wee hours included Bessie and Lester Haverly, Ann and Henry Devella, Rose Garza, Gladys Noonan, Gloria and Herbert Peterson, Carmen and Toby Piazza, Ruth Ellen and Ludwig Moran, Arnold Wolfe, Jean and Buster Heitzmann, Elaine Davis, Ray Bortages, Grace and Sam Bortages, Gladys and Harry Baxter, Wallace Bourgeois, Shirley and Bill Favre, Ella Jensen, Buddy Dufour, Lillian and Joe Griffin, Ora May and Connie Herlby, Claire and Fred Bourgeois, Nona and Harold Zimmerman, etc., etc.

Sympathy is extended to Sara (Mrs. John Munch)—Mrs. Carmen Nuccio, famed soprano born in Algiers, La., who passed away last Sunday was her first cousin. Sara has also been called to New Orleans frequently by the serious illness of her sister.

WSCS scores

Mrs. Ruth Meilaur reports the women of Waveland Methodist Church have earned $700 toward the purchase of an organ for the church with their sales of old newspapers. She asked us to express appreciation to all who have saved papers for this cause and anyone who would like to help need only call and someone will gladly pick up your paper.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Charles Upton was injured when an automobile struck the taxi in which she was riding last week in New Orleans. Don't know too many details, but she suffered facial lacerations.

That very busy Mrs. Winthrop Baker won't be quite so busy for the next few days. She entered a New Orleans hospital for surgery Tuesday so we'll send her very special get well wishes.

A reminder

The public hearing on Waveland's proposed zoning ordinance is at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Town Hall. If you're interested, and every resident should be—read the ordinance on pages 4 and 10 thoroughly, then if you have any objections voice them Friday—don't wait until the measure is passed to gripe!

Welcome home. . . and this is really belated—Peggy and Floyd Hepting—Peggy, Floyd and two little ones returned to their Nicholson Avenue home as permanent residents the weekend after Thanksgiving.

RUSSELL J. ELLIOTT

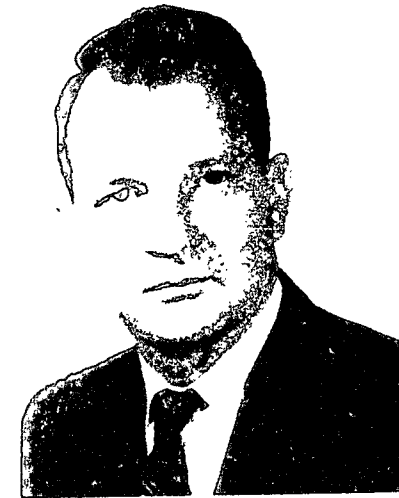

ANNOUNCES

HIS CANDIDACY FOR

Beat 5

Board of

Supervisor

To properly lead and coordinate the workings of our county employees. Under PROPER MANAGEMENT, WITH DEFINITE PLANNING, many of their SINCERE EFFORTS can be directed towards ACTUAL BENEFICIAL RESULTS.

To promote and secure a DEFINITE RETIREMENT and HOSPITAL PLAN for county employees. To institute and cooperate diligently with a PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD which will promote an ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM for PROPER CONTROL, GUIDANCE AND GROWTH OF OUR COUNTY.

To disburse the county funds HONESTLY and in a BUSINESS-LIKE MANNER insuring the MAXIMUM BENEFITS for EVERY TAX DOLLAR EXPENDED, WITH NO UNDER THE TABLE DEALS.

I HAVE NEVER accepted GRAFT or KICK-BACKS IN THE PAST and WILL NOT DO SO IN THE FUTURE.

To disburse county money with LOCAL BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS EQUALLY, there will be NO FAVORITISM OR DISCRIMINATION SHOWN. I will periodically contact each local merchant and PERSONALLY REQUEST their CONSTRUCTIVE ADVICE in the operation of our county.

I will continue my efforts in the behalf of YOUTH PROGRAMS which are so BENEFICIAL AND IMPORTANT, especially for these, OUR MOST IMPORTANT CITIZENS OF THE FUTURE. Will work for more and better RECREATIONAL FACILITIES.

I will definitely work with ALL PROGRESSIVE ORGANIZATIONS as the AMERICAN LEGION, JAYCEES, KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, ROTARY CLUB and other organizations imploring THEIR IDEAS AND EFFORTS FOR THE BETTERMENT OF OUR COMMUNITY.

I will cooperate with the other members of the Board of Supervisors in a GENTLEMANLY, BUSINESSLIKE MANNER, WHEREBY WITH UNITY OF THE BOARD, I will be placed in a position to BEST SERVE THE CITIZENS OF MY DISTRICT AND THE COUNTY IN GENERAL.

I WILL OPPOSE ALL RIDICULOUS BOND ISSUES, only entertaining such bond issues that are vitally necessary for the welfare of our county and I WILL DEFINITELY OPPOSE ANY BOND ISSUE UNLESS A REGULAR ELECTION IS CALLED WHEREBY THE CITIZENS MAY VOICE THEIR FINAL APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL.

Whereas all county funds are pooled, and whereas, Beat 5 Taxpayers are assessed approximately 75% of the taxes, ALL BOND ISSUES MUST INVOLVE THE ENTIRE COUNTY AND NEVER WILL I PERMIT BEAT 5 TO CARRY THE ENTIRE BURDEN.

A DOLLAR'S VALUE will be received for citizens from EVERY DOLLAR EXPENDED. With EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENTS OF ALL PROPERTIES - in a fair and impartial manner, NO TAXPAYER will have to carry the BURDEN OF ANOTHER.

I PROMISE AND GUARANTEE THE REDUCTION OF TAXES IN BEAT 5.

Throughout this campaign additional plans of my platform will be discussed. This is definitely an EXTREMELY ENTHUSIASTIC PLATFORM, but being CAPABLE SINCERE and AMBITIOUS for our county's advancement, I will be able to carry out my ideas and plans for a PROGRESSIVE COMMUNITY.

In closing I ask you to CHECK MY PAST RECORD as Justice of the Peace, my GENERAL HABITS and REPUTATION, and if you do not know me well, ASK OTHERS ABOUT ME, so that IN FAIRNESS TO YOURSELF AND TO ME, you can make your decision in the August primary THAT WILL BE MOST BENEFICIAL TO YOURSELF, YOUR FAMILY AND YOUR COUNTY.

MOST COURTEOUSLY I ask for YOUR SUPPORT and VOTE so that I can bring to reality my sincere AGGRESSIVE PLANS for a BIGGER AND BETTER COUNTY.

Sincerely,
Russell J. Elliott
Candidate for Supervisor of Beat 5, Hancock County, Mississippi

Card of Thank

I would like to take this moment of thanking each and every one who was so nice to me during my illness. I hope to return to work in the near future as I regain my strength, and all my friends again.

As ever,
EDWINA OSBOURNE

Card of Thank

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their love, sympathy and help in the death of our son, MR. and MRS. HARRY PAULSON. Our children, Mrs. Chas. Paulson and Mrs. Edna Paulson.

LAKE SHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

Our Varsity School held its grammar school basketball tournament last weekend. Our boys team was edged out by Logtown. Jerry Kennedy and Billie Boswell, played a good game assisted by the rest of the team but Logtown was a little better. Melva Dean McCordie, spark plug of the girls' team, had some good team work from Linda Fricke, Brenda LaFontaine and Beverly Laddner which took them to the finals against North Central. The score was up and tuck until the final quarter when our girls began to tire. North Central had 18 players to choose from while our same girls played all games. Even the N. Central won, all the spectators really enjoyed the games. Mrs. Forrest Laddner, Leola Soufflet, Betty Osborn, June Laddner, Bert Green, yours truly and a host of others cheered until hoarse. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bordage (Eleanor O'Farrell) who have a lovely little girl, their first child born early Tuesday morning in Hancock General. Proud grandparents are Ruble and John Bordage, and Haverly and Lenore O'Farrell all of Lakeshore. Omer Haas of Kilm lost his two pedigree red bone hounds Friday night around Baldwin's pasture. The dogs are without collars, but if any one sees any strange dogs please let us know and we will get in touch with their owner.

I spent two nights last week with Miss Theresa Zengaring. She has a wealth of stories about the old days when she and her brothers and sisters (all departed) were growing up. Two members of her family were the first to be buried in the Bayou La Croix cemetery. The priest in those days had missions in Bayou Caddy, Dadeaux, White Cypress, Kilm and Bayou La Croix. His rounds were made on horseback with the necessary things for conducting mass carried in saddle bags. Wednesday morning was his day at the little Bayou La Croix Church, where Miss Theresa's oldest brother, Mort, was an altar boy. The Zengaring table was laden with home cured meats, fowl and fresh vegetables, and butter and milk, so the young missionary was well fed before he started back to the Kilm where he lived. The priest: I see of this space age! I am inclined to agree with those who say "Those were the good old days."

Little Audrey Kennedy has been on the sick list, and her sister Barbara is back in Hancock General where she underwent surgery early Tuesday.

Perriard, Mike Poindeux, Leonard King, Prima Thomas, Donnie Wood, Susan Wood, 10th—Kappy Clark, Sandra Fillingame, John Flack, Walter Gagon, Linda Hamilton, Raymond Johnson, Lucien Laddner, Andrew Ramon, Lydia Dillmann, 11th—Ronnie Breland, Marilyn Laddner, Elaine Miller, JoAnn Riggs, Dick Watts, 12th—Ted Lehmann and Gloria Lombardo.

On the six-week list are: Ninth grade—Lorraine deMontuzin, Brenda Fricke, Bettye Lombardo.

COMMENTS:

No formal exception to expenditures or to other actions of any county officials has been taken at this time. As indicated below, however, records in both the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors and in that of the county tax collector have not been maintained in such fashion that they were ready for audit. Some of the posting work usually performed by the clerk or his deputies had to be completed by staff members of the Department of Audit before the audit itself could be performed.

FIRST MOON BABY - When little Karen Wade arrived

Friday at Hancock General Hospital it signaled the birth of the first baby in the county to a family who has moved here with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Mississippi Test Operation project and who is registered with the Chamber of Commerce as a NASA newcomer. Chamber president Warren Carver welcomed the new arrival with a bouquet from the chamber to the mother, Mrs. James Wade. Mr. Wade is with Raytheon Corp. at the acoustical sounding station, moving here in early November from Boston, Mass., and they are living on Waveland Avenue, Karen, who weighed in at seven pounds, two ounces, is their first child. Mrs. Wayne Ducomb, chamber newcomer committee chairman, arranged for the infant's special welcome.

girls to Girl's State in Jackson in the spring. Lots of good food for only one small dollar for adults and an even smaller four-bits for children.

Close call

Mrs. Joseph Kelly received quite a shock on her return from the Crescent City last week—she discovered that a fire which had raged through neighboring yards, scorched her garage, blackened her brand new chain link fence had been extinguished just before reaching her home which she has been remodeling and re-furnishing with lovely new appliances. Also saved from almost certain death was her lovely registered German Shepherd, Rex. Pines, banana trees and shrubbery were burned to a crisp. But the house and dog were unharmed. Mrs. Kelly asked us to convey her appreciation to the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department for their prompt action.

Pat Oisen and three lovely children will no doubt be returning to Waveland from Texas to visit her parents, Maizie and Ducre Bourgeois as her husband Bill is being transferred to Japan shortly. Pat and the little ones will join him in the Orient in April.

Maureen Wheatley has returned from Europe where she joined husband Lt. (j.g.) Gary Wheatley early in December. She had such a wonderful time she's already talking about her next journey to the continent. While in Rome she was among a throng blessed by the Pope, and also toured Lovernia, Genoa and Naples. Her luggage, which was left in Luxembourg, finally caught up with her. Then just as she was leaving Italy her camera was stolen, but promptly recovered—so all's well that ends well! Welcome home traveller.

Depest sympathy is extended to D. Urban Stark, who lives in Evansville, Ind., but owns two Waveland homes, one on Beach Blvd. and another on Sears Ave. His wife Irene passed away last

Bow to Pirates, Red Rebels

HNC, BHS shocked in circuit semis

Hancock North Central and Bay High were both knocked out of the running Friday night in the Gulf Coast Conference basketball tournament semifinals at Long Beach.

Pass Christian, twice a victim of Hancock Central, shocked the Hawks 53-47 while Harrison Central's eventual tourney champs fought for their lives before edging Bay High 57-49.

The Bay High girls downed the Hawkettes in first-round play before being eliminated by St. Martin's undefeated Yellow Jackets, winners in their division.

The Hawks and Pirates battled point-for-point all the way in their thriller before Pass High pulled in front to stay midway in the final quarter. The Pirates led 12-11 after one quarter, trailed 21-20 at halftime, and regained the lead 34-33 entering the final stanza. The outcome was in doubt until the final minute when six straight free throws by guard Wayne Moran iced the cake.

Forward Eugene Ladner and forward Berlin Ladner had 18 and 14 points to top Hawk scoring. Pass's Dale Moran led all scorers with 21.

Bay High played on even terms with Harrison Central until the final two minutes before falling to the Red Rebels for the fourth time this season. The Tigers, 12-6 on the season, have lost their other two contests to Hancock Central.

Bay High trailed 12-11 after one quarter, the two teams were 20-20 at the half, and Harrison Central led 38-36 after three periods. The Tigers were ahead with only three minutes remaining before bowing.

Senior forward Richard Schaefer led Bay High with 20 points, and senior guard Charles Bennett added 10. Paul Ladner paced the winners with 16 and Edwin Duncan scored 12.

The Tigers had advanced to the semifinals by posting a 56-48 triumph over St. Martin of Biloxi, while top-seeded Hancock Central drew a first-round bye.

Four players scored in twin-figures for Bay High, leaders all the way after a good first quarter. Schaefer scored 18, forward Ross Maurig 14, and guards Bennett and Leroy Luke 11 and 10, respectively.

The Tigerettes and Hawkettes, in first-round girls competition, played a thriller for the third time this season. Bay High emerging at 48-46 victory on a Susie Doering basket with only four seconds remaining. It marked the third straight time the Tigerettes have claimed victory over their county rivals.

Patsy Carver led the Bay High offense with 16 points and Susie Doering added 14. Ladette Palmer paced the Hawkettes with 22 and Brenda Stockstill tallied 19.

The Tigerettes never seriously threatened powerful St. Martin in semifinal play. The Yellow Jacket sextet led all the way, behind the 21-point scoring of hook-shooting center Elaine Powell. Sherlyn Cochran was the only Bay High girl in double figures, scoring 11.

At court of honor

4 scouts get life badges

Four Boy Scouts, all members of Troop 208, received life badges at the Bay St. Louis scouting district's court of honor last Thursday night at Bay High School auditorium. Presentation was made by Laverne Pahlman, troop leader, to Frank W. Lagarde, Jr., Patrick Murphy, Craig Johnson and John Pahlman.

Frank W. Lagarde, new Bay district chairman, presided and was introduced by Carl Arnold, district commissioner, after the opening flag ceremony was conducted by Troop 208. Present for the occasion was Edward Barnes, executive chairman, Beauregard District, New Orleans area.

Rev. Charles R. Johnson, institutional representative of Christ Episcopal Church, gave the opening prayer and Rev. Michael Kelly, institutional representative of Troop 217, Our Lady of the Gulf Church, offered the benediction.

Star badges were presented by Teddy Stechmann, Troop 217 leader, to Barry Favre, Jr., Troop 217; Raymond Thomas and Barry Favre, both of Post 217. Dickey Ladner and Leo di-Benedetto, Troop 208, and Otis Bounds of 217 received first class badges from Howell Crouch, Troop 220 leader.

Second class badges were presented by Watson Johns, assistant leader of 208 to Bob Boyd, Jerry Johnston, Lewis Wagner, Aaron Adams, Steve Poindester, Ranier Winkelmann, John Douglas, all of 220; Jimmy Caldwell and Dennis Raymond of 208.

Stechmann conducted the ten-foot investiture with candidates from all three troops, 208, 207 and 220, and Post 217.

Receiving badges were Louis Daussan, 220; Gilbert Gayaut, George Fleming, Parry Clingan,

Charles Poolson, George Kearney, 208; Curtis Ladner, Malcolm Cowan, Jim Morlan, Jay Rosta, Clifton Piazza, Paul Remel, Joseph Thomas, Keene Raulet, Sylvan Ladner, III, Richard White, David Kidd, Clarence Manuel, Steve Koch, Gregory Presnell, 207; and David Necaise, Merit 217.

Merit badges, perfect attendance and year pins also were presented to numerous scouts of all three troops by Julius Remel, assistant leader of 217.

Tonight: Tiger-Rock battle opens sub-district

The third chapter of Bay St. Louis's town basketball war unfolds tonight in the Bay High gym when the Bay High Tigers entertain St. Stanislaus at 8:30 in the feature attraction of first-round Sub-District Eight A-AA Tournament action. Two other games also are slated for tonight.

A rematch of the Bay High Tournament thrilling finale opens the card at 6 p.m., as Bay High and Pass Christian sextets meet. Pass Christian's boys, surprising conquerors last week in the Gulf Coast Conference Tournament over favored Hancock North Central, take on Long Beach at 7:15, to be followed by the Tiger-Rockachaw contest.

St. Joseph Academy swings into action Friday at 6 p.m., against Harrison Central girls, after which Harrison Central faces the Pass Christian-Long Beach winner at 7:15 and Gulfport battles the Bay High-Stanislaus victor at 8:30. Finals will be Saturday night at 7:30 and 8:45.

This 1963 marks the second consecutive year the Sub-District tourney has been staged at Bay High, although this year's is much smaller. In '62 the district was divided into two sub-districts, while it is now cut into four areas, Hancock Central, defending boys' kings, and Pearl River Central, girls' champs last season, are currently in a different sub-district.

Harrison Central, Gulf Coast Conference champs, is seeded first in the boys division and Gulfport, third place winners last week in the South Division Big Eight Tournament in Jackson, has drawn the second seed. Pass Christian is rated the team to beat in girls competition.

Admission for each of the three sessions will be 25 and 50 cents. Winners and runners-up in both divisions will advance to the over-all District Tournament in Gulfport next weekend.

Bay High senior forward Richard Schaefer was named guard Rhonda Osborn of Bay High and forwards Valerie Malley and Brenda Stockstill of Hancock North Central were named to the all-conference girls team. Also selected were Carolyn Scarborough, Gwen Ladner, and Linda Lizana of Pass Christian, Kaye and Faye Meyer, Elaine Powell, and Gloria Seymour of undefeated league champion St. Martin, and Jerry Evans of Harrison Central.

Pass High guard Linda Lizana was named Most Valuable girl player in the conference for 1962-63, winning by a scant vote over Faye Meyer.

Coach Frank Thompson of Pass Christian was named coach-of-the-year among both teams, and Malcolm Robinson of St. Martin was selected girls coach-of-the-year.
